FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Financial condition remained unchanged yesterday. Money continues plentiful, "too plentiful" many capitalists say. That means that money is seeking to diffuse itself, to expand and circulate in the channels of trade. This is the very thing that is wanted. The spring trade is at hand, if surplus capital "takes a hand" in it, it will be well for capital and well for trade. If the capital is withheld it will go only to swell the summer plethora in New York. Exchange is unsettled in some particulars, but it is evident that the new rates will prevail. As prevaient, we quote New York is discount, floston is discount for demand; New Orleans 2. All the banks are agreed on the New York and New Orleans rates, but the Baston rate one or two banks insist is 2, but then acknowledge to "special arrangements" at 3. The offerings of exchange were small. For gold, brokers were paying illicial", according to the amounts offering, as the greater the amount the higher the rate. There continues to be some inquiry about Nicoteon pavement bonds, but holders do not let go; in a week or ten days the new payenent scrip will be on hand, then there will probably be some movement; we hear it estimated at 42-35, which is lower than quotations of a week ago. Mr. Loague's message to council on city financial matters has, up to this time, produced no result. City securities are like promised money, "nowhere;" it is said that a good many city bonds have been sold for future delivery, and that they are carried at 10 per cent, and that they are carried at 10 per cent, and that they are not easy to lay hands upon. We await developments. There was a sale of 200 Mississappi Central at 80. THE FINANCIAL CONDITION remained

COTTON QUIET, DULL, nothing doing, was the cry to-day. Telegrams were not inspiriting. New York was dull at 16c for midding, and gives notice that on Monday, being a legal holiday, no reports will be sent. New Orieans recovered the decline of Friday; middling, 16c, but weak at the close; sales, 3000 bales; receipts, 2020 bales, Liverpool quoted lower, 7°, d., with a dull market; sales, 1000 bales. The receipts at the ports, for one day since Friday, shows some decline against last year, the first week it has done so, 14,277 bales, against 16,121 bales last week, and 14,277 bales, against 16,121 bales last week, and 14,277 bales, against 16,121 bales last week, and 14,277 bales, market at the close. In our market and easy market at the close, in our market the inquiry was very light, and sales small; a heavy, dull re-ling has possession of the market just now, and only a sharp reduction in receipts appears likely to awaken a more active spirit, unless holders come to the conclusion to seil at rates they will not now listen to. In reply to our immuries we heard the following prices: Scalned cottons lie; low ordinary 75,26c; ordinary 105, 2105c; at the latter price a lot of 1800 bales was soil odied, cond stande, river-bot-COTTON QUIET, DULL, nothing doing, on; strict ordinary at 11 @12c; nothing port. The Fancies of the Sick.

A diseased imagination is the usual concomitant of a torpid stomach. There is no complaint to which humanity is subject which the dyspeptic does not at different times suppose that he has or is about to have. The only way to disabuse the sufferer's mind of these fancies, which are realities to him, is to infuse life and vigor into his digestive organs, and the most potent preparation for this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. There is no affection of the stomach, no irregularity of the liver or disorder of the bowels, consequent upon indigestion for which it is not an absolute specific. During the twenty-five years that it has been the standard tonic and alterative of America, millions of dyspeptics have recovered their health and the capacity to enjoy life by the sole aid of this wholesome and searching vegetable preparation. As an assimilant and an anti-bilious agent, a remedy for lassitude, debility, nervousness and morbid fancies, there has never been anything comparable to it in any age or The Fancies of the Sick. en anything comparable to it in any age o
